PLENTY OF RAILROADS.

The Denver News says, editorially, that when the snow melts from the mountains the transits of numerous engineer parties will be leveled at all the mountain passes and all the canyons which lead from the eastern slope toward the Great Salt Lake and Pacific Coast. The Rock Island, the Burlington, the Union Pacific, the Midland and the Rio Grande will all have surveying parties in the field looking out a line toward the Golden Gate. The Eureka Sentinel is morally certain that two or three additional transcontinental lines will cross Nevada within as many years. California is too great a country and the through business too much of a temptation for these great trunk lines to remain hid away in the Rocky Mountains. They must pull up and go on through to get a slice of it. The Sentinel adds: "We are hopeful that our immediate section will derive its full share of the benefits resulting from the construction of these roads. We are in the midst of the very mineral heart of the great basin and no road with an eye to local business is going to ignore this region. The line being surveyed by the Union Pacific just south of us seems at this time to be the most likely to furnish early relief. Six new crews of surveyors have just been ordered from California to this route. It looks like business."

If Mr. Lincoln accepts his appointment —and the indications are that he will— and Fred Grant takes the Austrian Mission, President Harrison's Administration will be memorable with its personal links with the past greatness of America. A grandson of his grandfather in the Presidential chair and two sons of their fathers in such important foreign posts will make an ancestral combination which is rare.

But Mr. Lincoln has always stood on his own merits, apart from the prestige he derives from his father's name From the close of the war until 1881 he steadily refused all offers of public office on this account and devoted himself to building up a law practice which would speak for itself. A brief review of his life would show that such honors as have come to him in late years have been thrust upon him.

Senator Stanford gives annually in Washington a dinner at which not only all the guests are from the other side of the Rocky Mountains, but the wine, fruits, cheese, oil, and everything else that can be procured from California are used on the table.

The President has nominated and the Senate has confirmed Jas. W. Huston, of Indiana, as Treasurer of the United States. The appointment is one of the very best yet made by General Harrison, and the people can feel secure about Uncle Sam's cash box.

Minister Pendleton's health is slowly improving, but private letters from Paris say that he never will be able to work again. His mind is clear on ordinary occasions, but it is unequal to the task of any long or connected effort.

Even at the rate of 140 decapitations of Democratic Postmaster's heads per day it will require some time to restore the postal service of the country to its normal Republican efficiency.

The President will be a darling if he will nominate Osbourne for Public Printer. He can make no better selection, and the Pacific Coast prints will be correspondingly happy.

The Gazette has entered upon a new volume with the daily, and is nearly as old as its daddy. May it continue to prosper and grow up with the country.

The nomination of Isadore Lowenthal to be Postmaster at Modesta, Cal., has been rejected by the Senate. Mr. Halstead, therefore, has company.

THE UTAH MARSHALSHIP.

The Silver State stands in as follows:

F. H. Dyer has resigned the position of United States Marshal for Utah Territory to which he was appointed by President Cleveland in April, 1886. This makes an opening for A. C. Cleveland, of White Pine, who has been indorsed by the Nevada delegation in Congress and leading Gentiles of Utah for the position. It is urged against the appointment of Mr. Cleveland that he is not a resident of Utah, and that it would therefore be a violation of a principle of the Republican platform to appoint him; but it is not contended that the principle was intended to apply to Utah, where the feeling between the Mormons and Gentiles runs so high that it would be difficult to find unprejudiced persons among either party, and for that reason the officials ought to be chosen from men outside the Territory.

Mr. Cleveland is an old-time resident of Nevada and represented White Pine county in the State Senate in 1871 with marked ability. He was favorably mentioned as a Republican candidate for Governor two years ago, and is as capable a man for the position of Marshal as could be selected in the Great Basin.

It Is a Great Country.

It is estimated that the present population of the United States is 64,000,000. The total increase is said to be 100,000 a month, exclusive of immigration, and last year the increase by immigration was 518,000. At this rate the next census which will be taken in July, 1890, will show about 67,000,000.

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

Joseph Nicola, a full-blooded Indian, represents the Penobscot tribe in the Maine Legislature.

A Connecticut Yankee has been appointed Commissioner of Patents. The crop of wooden nutmegs is secure from infringements.

Lord Randolph Churchill, the mugwump of England, boasts of three actual followers. To avoid political extinction he is gradually nearing the Liberal party.

The Chicago Tribune insists that there are more children in this country named after Grover Cleveland than all the other New York lawyers put together.

The passage of Brad Slaughter through the nominating machine appears to have shattered the cogs. The Nebraska end is a melancholy specimen of inaction.

Mrs. Elijah Halford named her Florida home "Hoosier's Nest." The bait won't work. The Hoosiers will roost in the White House grounds for the next three years.

John Burroughs has practically abandoned literature for what he finds a better paying cultivation—that of the soil. He finds the sward mightier than the pen.

Senator Stanford, of California, has sent his check for $5,000 to the committee in Boston engaged in raising a fund of $100,000 for Mrs. Philip H. Sheridan, the widow of the late General.

Cutting, the Forsker of the Rio Grande, who threatened to mop the earth with the greasers of Mexico, has not yet applied for an office. He is busily watching young Cutting teeth.

Ex-Senator Tabor was at one time an employe of Secretary of War Proctor's quarry. Since that time he has acquired a divorce, an extensive wardrobe and the haughty stride of a millionaire.

Ex Mayor Hewitt, of New York, has crawled out of the ruins of the November earthquake. His mouth did not recover its wonted frequency till he reached Chattanooga last week.

Count von Moltke, though eighty-six years old, fully retains his love for music and hardly ever misses a court concert. He used to be a frequent performer on the piano, too, but has reformed in that respect.

George Peabody Wetmore, ex-Governor of Rhode Island, is the favorite in the race for the chair vacated by Senator Chace. Mrs. Wetmore is the handsome lady who declined an introduction to the Prince of Wales at Hamburg last Summer.

Mrs Richard Perkins, of Boston, has presented to the Bostonian society a three-page letter that John Hancock wrote from London on March 2, 1761, to the Rev. Daniel Perkins, of Bridgewater. In it Hancock said: "I shall with satisfaction bid adieu to this grand place with all its pleasurable enjoyments for the more substantial pleasure I promise myself in the enjoyment of my friends in America. * * The greatest estate in England would be but a poor temptation to me to spend my days here."

Mrs Eureka Storey, widow of the late Wilbur F. Storey, editor of the Chicago Times, has gone to New York to decide upon a suitable design for a monument to mark her husband's last resting place. A great number of drawings and models wrought in various quarried stones have been submitted for her approval. Her choice is said to have fallen upon a shaft of red granite that will be quite as high, if it can be quarried, as the Egyptian obelisk.

A good story is going the rounds concerning a certain application for a position in the Postoffice Department. A constituent of a Western Congressman concluded that he would like to run the elevator in the Department for the next four years. He laid the matter before the Congressman and requested his influence.

"Nothing easier," said the Congressman, and together they went to see the Postmaster General. Mr. Wanamaker was in. He had just concluded a series of interviews with about a score of office seekers.

"I have come," explained the Congressman, "to ask the appointment of my constituent here to a place in your department. The place he wants is not a large one and he wants it now. He would like to run the elevator. There are no other applicants and I think there ought to be no hesitancy in appointing him at once."

"Let me see," mused Mr. Wanamaker. "Isn't there a man already in that position? I think we have an elevator man who is doing his work satisfactorily. He cannot be removed unless there are charges of a serious nature against him, and they will have to be established, too."

"If that's all," was the reply, "I can prefer charges right now," and the Western man reached for pen and paper and wrote in a bold hand:

To Postmaster General Wanamaker: The elevator man employed by this Administration to run the elevator in the Post-Office is a Democrat.

—— —— M. C.

"There," said he, when he had finished, "that is all the charge that's necessary. The Lord knows it's a serious enough charge to make against any man."

Mr. Wanamaker took the document, carefully read it, and said he would take the matter into consideration, but no change of elevator-man has yet been made.

President Harrison has set an important precedent. He will not kiss babies. There was a larger crowd than usual in the East Room yesterday, and it took the President fully fifteen minutes to shake hands with every one. One very pretty baby in its colored "mammy's" arms was saved until the last. The President looked longingly at it, held its chubby hand for some time, but did not kiss it, although its very pretty mother and prettier aunt were standing by. They looked disappointed.—Washington Dispatch.

The Great Violinist.

The Indianapolis People says:

The feature of the evening, however, rendered this concert one of the most remarkable given in this city for a long time, and this was the violin performance of Professor Heine. He was recalled again and again by the cultured German audience, and good naturedly responded several times. We may truly apply the often abused word phenomenal to Prof. Heine's execution upon this evening, the brilliancy of which was due to the fact that he has greatly recovered from the affection of the right arm, which for a long time paralyzed his powers. He played a brilliant "Tarantella," "Carnival of Venice," variations upon Scotch airs, and finally a Scherza from one of his own concertos, and frequently surprised the audience by bringing sudden tears to the eyes on the eve of an irrepressible laugh. We do not hesitate to say that Prof. Heine is only rivaled by Wilhelmj.

Borax Mines.

The Esmeralda News says:

No county in the State can boast of more extensive borax works than are those now in operation in Esmeralda, and yet it appears that the laboring men derive very little benefit therefrom. A stranger walked into town the other day and was overheard to remark that while coming from Candelaria he stopped at one of the principal borax producing headquarters in the county and asked the gentleman in charge for a job. He was told that if he wanted to work for the same wages then being paid the Piutes and Chinamen, which he learned was from $1 to $1 50 a day, he could pull off his coat and consider himself engaged. He declined the position and started afoot for Hawthorne.

We are painfully aware that Chinamen and Indians are the principal persons employed in and about our borax mines, and why it should be thus it is hard to understand. Why would not it be just as well for the owners of these works to give our laboring white men, of which there is a number at present out of work, a chance to earn an honest dollar, instead of giving a lot of thieving Piutes and hated Mongolians. The mines are fully valuable enough to allow the payment of decent wages. Several men have made independent fortunes out of these same mines, and it is safe to presume that the present owners are not losing money in their operation. Give the white man a chance.

Burned Down.

On Tuesday last some evil disposd person set fire to the houses owned by the Sherman and Reno mining companies at the works four miles this side of Virginia City. The property destroyed was worth about $,2000. The Sherman Co. is owned by Col. M. N. Stone, of Virginia, Wm. Burke, of White Pine, and Jas. Burke, of Steamboat. The Reno Co. is owned by Sheriff Flint, Gen Evans and Charley Chase, of Reno.

Will Not be Appointed.

The Eureka Sentinel says:

It is understood through private correspondence from Washington that Mr. Wren's friends there have about abandoned hope of his appointment to the Commissionership of the General Land Office. It is said that a Colorado man is to get the place. Mr. Wren was to have started home from Washington some days ago. What's the matter with him being a very eligible person for the mission to the Sandwich Islands?

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle feb. 21-swf-1y

WHAT ON EARTH

Is the reason people will not, can not or do not, see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGGS' BLOOD PURIFIER AND BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work will cost you nothing.

A. Abrahams has gone to the Bay.

Judge King visited Carson yesterday.

The farmers are cleaning out the ditches.

There are $35,634 87 in the county treasury.

J. E. Soucheraux was down from Verdi yesterday.

The JOURNAL looks better in its change of measure.

D. L. Bliss, of Carson, was a passenger for the Bay last night.

Go to Lange & Schmitt for garden hose. Best value in the State.

R. W. Parry and family returned from San Francisco yesterday.

Quite a crowd of Renoites attended the dance at Glendale last Saturday night.

The assessments on the Utah Con,. Sierra Nevada and Mexican fall delinquent April 5th.

Tom Hymers' residence is to be raised two feet. Tom is getting old and wants more room.

The place to buy choice garden, field and flower seeds at low prices is at Osburn and Shoemaker's.

The Orr Extension Ditch Co. has levied an assessment of $10 per share, official notice of which will be found elsewhere.

S. A. Hamlin has moved his family from Verdi to Reno. He is located in one of D. Lachman's houses in the Western Addition.

George Becker is ready for the Spring trade. He has newly painted all his beer kegs, and has just received twenty gross of bottles and a lot of new soda cases.

Con. Cal. & Va. Ore Shipments.

The Virginia Chronicle says ore shipments to the Eureka and Morgan mills from the Con. Cal. & Va. mine have been increased to an average of 400 tons per day, and show a value of above $35 per ton from battery sample assays. The weekly bullion yield of this ore will average about $80,000, which is above the product required to cover operating expenses and regular monthly dividends.

Above a year ago croakers predicted that the ore resources of this wonderful mine would be exhausted in less than three months. The Chronicle is assured that there are still many dividends in sight in the ore reserves now stripped, the area of which is constantly being added to by new discoveries.

Abandonment of Fort McDermit.

It is officially stated, says the Silver State, that Fort McDermit will be abandoned next June. Possibly Senators Stewart and Jones may be influential enough at the War Department to get the order rescinded, but as Generals Howard and Sheridan recommended it, it will probably be carried into effect. The reasons assigned for the abandonment of the post are its distance from the railroad and the high cost of transportation, which, considering that only people living away from railroads need protection from Indians, and that the national treasury is overflowing with coin, are not very convincing.

From the Follo, Boston.

In our opinion, Mr. Heine is one of the surpassing violinists of the age. His style is thoroughly artistic, his tone melodious and full, and his intonation perfect. His expression is that which results from a deep understanding, and is full of feeling, tenderness and purity. He executes with ease the most difficult passages from Ernst, Paganini and other composers, and in a manner which never fails to delight his hearers. We think Mr. Heine is second to no violinist now living. If Ole Bull be first he is not alone.

Buy A Lot.

Prof. Jackson, Prof. Miller and S. J. Hodgkinson last week bought five lots of J. N. Evans, on north Virginia street, near the University. All the parties intend to build, and the Professors, of course, want to be near the school. Town lots are becoming scarce in Reno, and in a short time it will be hard work to purchase an eligible lot, without paying double money for some old house that may be on it.

Auction of Buggies and Wagons.

I will sell at auction, in order to make room for a new invoice of goods, Saturday, April 6th, a fine lot of buggies, wagons and carts. Most of these goods are new, and some are of the best manufacture. The sale to commence at 2 P. M., in front of the Opera House Dry Goods Store.

W. J. LUKE.
C. W. BOOTON, Auctioneer.

Mill Management Changed.

The Virginia Chronicle says the Nevada mill was turned over to the Senator Jones interest yesterday. W. Bulmer is superseded as Superintendent by Evan Williams, and John Barclay, late of the Mexican mill, is appointed foreman. The Jones interest now has control of all the stamp mills in operation except the California and Mort gan.

THE OLD RELIABLE FURNITURE HOUSE OF John Breuner is well worthy of note, and we take pleasure in devoting to it due space and attention. Mr. Breuner has been engaged in this business for thirty-three years and conducts one of the largest business houses in California. He manufactures and deals in all kinds of furniture and bedding, and has established a most enviable celebrity for the excellence of the goods turned out by his house. He carries a very large stock, embracing all grades and kinds of furniture and quotes prices that defy competition. His goods are all first-class, made of the best material and first-class workmanship, and the people cannot find a more advantageous house to deal with. He carries a supply of photographs of all goods, which will be sent free of charges to any address, and by this method people at a distance can select goods at home as well as in person at his house, and may rest assured of being satisfactorily and fairly treated by him. This is a most convenient and pleasant method for those abroad, and we recommend a trial of it.

The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.
